

MERGER ANNOUNCEMENT - M/24/002 – CEVA/WINCANTON

Competition and Consumer Protection Commission clears proposed acquisition by CEVA Logistics SA, a wholly owned subsidiary of CMA CGM SA, of the entire issued share capital of Wincanton plc including its subsidiaries.

7 February 2024

The Competition and Consumer Protection Commission has today cleared the proposed transaction whereby CEVA Logistics SA, a wholly owned subsidiary of CMA CGM SA, will acquire the entire issued share capital of Wincanton plc including its subsidiaries. The proposed transaction was notified under the Competition Act 2002, as amended, on 22 January 2024.

The Commission has formed the view that the proposed transaction will not substantially lessen competition in any market for goods or services in the State. The Commission will publish the reasons for its determination on its website no later than 60 working days after the date of the determination and after allowing the parties the opportunity to request that confidential information be removed from the published version.

Additional Information:

CEVA is a wholly owned indirect subsidiary of CMA. CEVA provides freight forwarding and contract logistics services in the UK and internationally. In the State, CEVA's provides contract logistics services, freight forwarding and custom and charter brokerage. As part of its CLS business in the State, CEVA offers end-to-end logistics solutions including transportation services, warehouse management system and supply chain solutions, primarily servicing customers in the healthcare and pharmaceutical sector.

Wincanton is a British supply chain solutions company, headquartered in Chippenham, Wiltshire. Wincanton is listed on the London Stock Exchange, trading under the ticker WIN. In the State, Wincanton provides CLS which covers the provision of services such as bulk tankers, road, rail, and container transports, recycling, storage, returns management, record management, vehicle management, co-packing, and production logistics.