

MERGER ANNOUNCEMENT M/24/024 – APLEONA/NEYLONS

Section 21 of the Competition Act 2002

Competition and Consumer Protection Commission clears the proposed acquisition by Apleona Ireland Limited, of sole control of Neylons Facility Management Limited and its subsidiaries, Aquachem Water Management DAC and Stratos Energy Services Limited.

07 May 2024

The Competition and Consumer Protection Commission has today cleared the proposed transaction whereby Apleona Ireland Limited (“Apleona”), will acquire sole control of Neylons Facility Management Limited (“Neylons”) and its subsidiaries, Aquachem Water management DAC and Stratos Energy Services Limited, (together the “Target Group”) (the “Proposed Transaction”). The Proposed Transaction was notified under the Competition Act 2002, as amended, on 17 April 2024.

The Commission has formed the view that the proposed transaction will not substantially lessen competition in any market for goods or services in the State. The Commission will publish the reasons for its determination on its website no later than 60 working days after the date of the determination and after allowing the parties the opportunity to request that confidential information be removed from the published version.

Additional Information

Apleona Ireland Limited is part of a larger group structure and is a 100% wholly owned subsidiary of Apleona GmbH. Apleona Ireland Limited is primarily active in the provision of services relating to integrated facility management, building technology and interior fittings as well as property management, installation services and real estate services.

Neylons Facility Management Limited and its subsidiaries, namely Aquachem Water Management DAC and Stratos Energy Services Limited, are involved in the provision of integrated facility management services. Neylons Facility Management Limited provides a complete range of facility management services to customers including water treatment services, engineering and energy services, and building management system services.